Senior Services Report

JoAnn Ewing provided an overview of summer activities. There is no longer a wait list for Meals on Wheels. Starting next week there will be meals served 5 days per week at the center. JoAnn will be meeting on July 25th with area Senior Center directors regarding meals to see where everyone stands. The contract for MAT transit was on hold but will be signed by the Town Manager.

Old Business

Everbridge System

The new information and sign-up sheet for the Everbridge system is ready. An article will go into the Rivereast and a copy of the information sheet will go into the Events magazine.

Transportation Information for Doctor's Offices

No information has been received from Cheryl Gioielli. Ms. Greeno will follow up with her.

Survey

Ms. McDonald provided a summary of the survey results. The Commission members will go to the Town Council with their findings in September.

Ice Cream Social

An article was published in the Rivereast and the information will go on the 250th Anniversary web page.

Discount Cards

Members are still working on obtaining information from the businesses.

Brochure

The new logo was added to the brochure. A new photo will be taken of the Commission when possible.

New Business

Table Cover

There was $250 left in last year's budget. A table cover with the Commission on Aging logo will be purchased.

Legislative News

Mr. Atherton reported that legislation regarding temporary health care structures is awaiting the Governor's signature.

Other Business

Ms. McLaughlin said that since the Commission is almost done with all of the projects that have been started she would like to do a survey on home health care businesses in East Hampton. She would like to find out what is available in town and the various levels of care and service. This will be discussed more at future meetings.
