Celebrating 41 years of service to our clients.

CORONA VIRUS IMPACTS: The Law Firm of William D. Grady is taking the Coronavirus/COVID-19 crisis very seriously. We are taking precautions at the office to ensure the safety of our employees, clients and the general public and have made sure that we can all work remotely from home should the need arise. Frequently used surfaces, doorknobs, etc. are being disinfected several time throughout the day. We are limiting in-office appointments and visits to essential in-person meetings to protect our staff and you. If you need to contact us or drop something off at the office, please call or email first. We will likely have you send documents via mail or email instead of coming to the office. We remain committed to servicing our clients as efficiently as possible. We are all in this together. Please stay healthy and safe.
