Section 3. No new business submitted for action to the Board shall be acted upon unless the Clerk has ample time to fulfill the legal notice requirements.

ARTICLE XI Hearings

Section 1. The Board may hold public hearings, in addition to required hearings, when it decides that such hearings will be in the public interest.

Section 2. All public hearings on Zoning Board of Appeals wherein a formal petition, application, request or appeal shall be heard in accordance with the requirements set forth for such hearings in Title 8, Chapters 124 of the Connecticut General Statutes, as amended. Notice of the public hearings shall be given at least twice at intervals of not less than two days, the first not more than 15 days nor less than 10 days, and the last not less than two days, before such hearing, in a newspaper of the general circulation in the municipality.

Section 3. The matter before the Board shall be presented in summary by a member of the Board designated by the Chairman, and parties interested shall have the privilege of the floor.

Section 4. All public hearings shall be recorded. Proceedings of the hearing shall be incorporated into the minute book of the Board to be a permanent part of the record.

ARTICLE XII Conducting the Public Hearing

Section 1. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at the public hearing. In event of his absence, the Vice-Chairman or a duly appointed Agency member shall act as a presiding officer.

Section 2. The recording clerk shall read the legal advertisement and note the dates and newspaper in which the advertisement appeared.

Section 3. A summary of the question or issue shall be stated by the presiding officer at the opening of the public hearing. Comments shall be limited to the subject advertised for the hearing. In any event, the Board shall have the privilege of speaking first. The Chairman shall describe the method of conduct of hearing.

Section 4. The Chairman shall first call for statements from the proponents. The opponent shall be given equal opportunity to comment. The order is reversible, the discretion of the Board prevailing. Whichever the case may be, each group shall make its presentation in succession without allowing an intermixture of comments pro or con.

Section 5. It shall be clear to the hearing that all questions and comments must be directed through the Chair only after being properly recognized by the presiding officer.

Section 6. All persons recognized shall approach the hearing table in order to facilitate proper recording comments. Before commenting on the matter before the hearing each person shall give his name and address.

Section 7. The presiding officer shall assure an orderly hearing and shall take necessary steps to maintain the order and decorum of the hearing at all time. The presiding officer shall reserve the right to terminate the hearing in the event the discussion becomes unruly and unmanageable.

Section 8. The show of hands by those persons present shall not be allowed on any general question presented at the public hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in deliberations of the regular meeting of the Board. If a general consensus of the meeting is desired, the Board may provide properly identified sheets on which the electors may signify in writing their opinion as either in favor or opposed to the questions before the public hearing. This shall not limit the ability of the Board to express their decisions by voice vote.

ARTICLE XIII Employees

Section 1. Within the limits of the funds available for its use, the Board may employ such staff, personnel and/or consultant as it sees fit to aid the Board in its work. All appointments shall be in accordance with Town policy.

ARTICLE XIV Committees

Section 2. A majority of the committee members shall be present for the conduct of business and voting.

Section 3. Standing committees may be appointed by the Chairman at the direction of the Board.

ARTICLE XV
Amendments to Bylaws

These byways may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the entire voting membership of the Board, only after the proposed change has been read and discussed at a previous regular meeting, except that the bylaws may be changed at any meeting by the unanimous vote of the entire voting membership of the Board.

Town of East Hampton, The Code, Part I, Administrative Legislation
Chapter 152 – Zoning Board of Appeals

§ 152-1

Election; terms.

The regular members of the Zoning Board of Appeals shall continue to be elected at the regular biennial elections for terms of five years. At the regular election of 1961 and biennially thereafter, there shall be elected as many regular members as shall be necessary to fill the places of those whose terms shall expire prior to the next succeeding biennial election.

§ 152-2

Alternate members.

At the regular biennial election in 1961 and quadrennially thereafter, three alternate members of the Zoning Board of Appeals shall be elected for terms of four years from the dates of their election. Pursuant to the authority contained in Section I of Public Act No. 146 of 1959,[1] the Town Council shall appoint three alternate members for the period between the effective date of this chapter and the date of the regular biennial election in 1961.
